LEGAL PROVISIONS

3.01 MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS AND CONFLICT

In the interpretation of the provisions of this Code, they shall be held to be the minimum requirements for the promotion of the public health, safety, convenience, prosperity and general welfare. When a provision of this Code differs or conflicts with the provisions of any other ordinance, statute, law or regulation, the most restrictive requirement shall apply.

3.02 CONFORMANCE REQUIRED

Except as hereinafter provided, no land, building, structure or premises shall hereafter be used, and no building or structure or part thereof shall be located, erected, moved, reconstructed, extended, enlarges or altered except in conformity with the regulations herein specified for the District in which it is located.

3.03 SEPARABILITY

Should any section, clause or provision of this Code be declared by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such declaration shall not affect the validity of this Code as a whole, or part thereof, other than the part so declared invalid.

3.04 PENDING APPLICATIONS

Nothing contained herein shall require any change in the plans, construction, size or designated use of any development, building, structure, or part thereof, for which a required building permit has been, or based upon a pending application duly filed lawfully could have been granted before the effective date of this Code provided that construction is begun no later than six (6) months after the effective date of this Code and is carried on to completion in a reasonable manner and without unnecessary delay.

3.05 VIOLATIONS, PENALTIES

It shall be unlawful to locate, erect, construct, reconstruct, enlarge, change, maintain or use any building or land in violation of any of the provisions of this Code or any amendment thereto. Any violation of the provision of this Code shall be misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall subject the owner or any person who has assisted in the commission of such violation, or who uses or maintains any building or premises in which such violation exists, to a fine of not more than fifty ($50.00) each day that a violation is permitted to exist may constitute a separate offense.

CHAPTER 4

NONCONFORMING USES AND STRUCTURES

4.01 INTENT

It is the intent of this Code to recognize that the eventual elimination of existing uses and structures which are not in conformity with the provisions of this Code is as much a subject of health, safety and welfare as is the prevention of the establishment of new uses which would violate these provisions. However, it is the further intent that any elimination of nonconforming uses or structures shall be effected in such a manner as to avoid unreasonable invasion of established private property rights.

4.02 NON-CONFORMANCE OF USE

A non-conforming use, as defined in Chapter 2 may be continued, subject to exceptions and conditions set forth hereunder.

4.021 Change of Use

No non-conforming use may be changed to another non-conforming use except by approval of the Board of Zoning Appeals in accordance with Section 17.032 of this Code. Such change of use shall only be changed to a use of the same class or more restrictive class as the previous non-conforming use.

No such change of use may involve a structural alteration, or any change which, in the judgment of the Board, would be more detrimental to the surrounding neighborhood than the existing non-conformity.

4.022 Abandonment

No building, structure or premises where a non-conforming use has ceased for one (1) or more years shall again be put to a non-conforming use.

4.03 STRUCTURAL NON-CONFORMANCE

A non-conforming structure, as defined in Chapter 2, may be continued, subject to the following conditions and requirements:

4.031 Structural Alteration, Extension or Repair

A non-conforming structure may be altered, extended or repaired without prior approval of the Board of Zoning Appeals provided that such alteration, extension or repair does not increase the degree of the non-conformity. For example:

- A. If a yard is non-conforming as to its dimension, such dimension shall not be further decreased, nor shall the length or heights of the exterior wall adjoining such non-conforming yard be increased.
- B. If the building height is non-conforming, it shall not be increased.

4.032 Expansion of Use

No non-conforming structure may be changed to provide for an expansion of its use except by approval of the Board of Zoning Appeals, even though such expansion is in accordance with the use requirements of this Code. Examples of such expansion include increasing the number of dwelling units or the floor space of a commercial or industrial establishment. In approving an appeal for expansion of use in a non-conforming structure, the Board shall find that such extension will not have a detrimental effect on neighboring property.

4.04 REPAIRING DAMAGED BUILDINGS

A non-conforming building or a building occupied by a non-conforming use which is damaged or destroyed by fire, flood, winds, act of God, or other cause beyond the control of the owner may be repaired or reconstructed and the non-conforming use, if any, may be continued, provided that such repair or reconstruction is commenced within a period of one year and diligently prosecuted to completion.

5.03 DETERMINATION OF DISTRICT BOUNDARIES

Except where referenced and noted on the Zoning District Map by a clearly designated line and / or written dimensions, the District boundary lines are intended to follow property lines, lot lines or the center lines of streets, alleys or streams as they existed at the time of adoption of this Code or the extension of such lines provided however, that where a boundary line is shown as adjoining a railroad right-of-way, it shall unless otherwise fixed be construed to coincide with the nearest boundary line of the railroad right-of-way; provided further that, if the boundary line cannot be shown accurately by any of the aforesaid methods, it shall be shown by the written dimensions, indicating clearly the distance of said boundary line from the nearest parallel street center line, government survey line or other permanent and legally established line. The Zoning Inspector shall interpret the location of boundary lines as shown on the Zoning District Map. When the Zoning Inspector's interpretation is questioned, the boundary lines shall be determined by the Board of Zoning Appeals as prescribed in Chapter 17.

5.04 VACATION OF STREETS, ALLEYS OR OTHER PUBLIC WAYS

Whenever any street, alley or other public way is vacated by official action as provided by law, the Zoning Districts adjoining the sides of such public way shall be automatically extended, depending on the side or sides to which the land reverts, to include the right-of-way thus vacated which henceforth shall be subject to all regulations of the extended District or Districts, except that utility rights-of-way or easements shall not be affected by such action.

Only uses designated as permitted shall be allowed and any use not so designated shall be prohibited except in specific cases where the Board of Appeals is authorized to rule on non-designated uses which it deems to be similar to those which are designated as permitted. The degree of flood protection required by this Code is considered reasonable for regulatory purposes. Larger floods may occur or flood heights may be increased by man-made or natural causes, such as ice jams and bridge openings restricted by debris. This Code does not imply that areas outside the Flood Plain District boundaries or land uses permitted within such district will be free from flooding or damages. This Code shall not create liability on the Part of the Village of Caledonia or any officer or employee thereof for any flood damages that result from reliance on the Code or any administrative decision lawfully made thereunder.

PLANNED DEVELOPMENT PROJECTS

14.01 PURPOSE AND GENERAL PROCEDURES

14.011 Purpose

The purpose of this Chapter is to provide the opportunity for latitude in the building of pre-planned development which, by virtue of good design and balanced, well organized development, provide for orderly community growth or re-growth without strict adherence to all the development standards set forth elsewhere in this Code for each zoning district.

14.012 General Procedure and Requirements

Subject to the procedures and limitations set forth in Section 14.013 and 14.014 hereunder, planned development projects may be approved in use districts as set forth in this Chapter.

In the case of a proposal involving an exceptionally large area, in which the general plan contemplates the development of a complete community, comprising a balance arrangement of residential, commercial, industrial and public uses, one application may include several projects, as provided for in this chapter. For such application, all of the procedures set forth in this chapter may proceed simultaneously, and approval may be in a single action. Provided, however, that where uses are proposed which are not permitted in the District involved, the required procedure for amendment to the Zoning Map must be followed:

14.013 Basic Requirements

In order to obtain approval, a proposed planned development shall comply with the following general requirements:

1. Shall be in conformity with the Comprehensive Plan or portion thereof as it may apply;
2. Shall be consistent in all respects with the purposes and intent of this Zoning Code;
3. Will advance the general welfare of the Village, and
4. Will provide, through desirable arrangement and design, benefits which justify the deviations from development standards which otherwise could apply.

14.014 Application procedures for all Planned Projects

14.0141 Zoning Application Procedure

- A. All applications for planned development projects shall be submitted to the Planning Commission, which shall investigate and ascertain that the plans for any such project comply with the conditions set forth in this Chapter. The Commission shall specify in its by-laws the plans and other information which shall accompany each application.

A report of its findings and recommendation shall be prepared and Acted upon by the Commission. Such report shall constitute a recommendation to the Village Council, for action as set forth hereunder.

- B. In its review of and action on any application for a planned development project, the Village Council shall follow the procedure set forth in the Ohio Statutes for an amendment to the Zoning Map, including posting of notices, request for report from the Regional Planning Commission, and hearings and action by the Village Council.

However, approval of a planned development project shall not, of itself, constitute an amendment of the Zoning District in which the tract is located. If the approved development is not installed in accordance with plans and requirements of this Chapter within four (4) years after date of approval, such approval shall become null and void.

14.0142 Subdivision Procedure

If the proposed planned development project is determined to be a Subdivision under the provisions of Chapter 711, Revised Code of Ohio, the proposal shall be submitted and reviewed as a sub-division in the manner set forth in the Subdivision Regulations. In such case, any approval of the planned development under the provisions of this Zoning Code shall be tentative, and shall be revoked if a final subdivision plan is not submitted and recorded within one (1) year after such tentative zoning approval.

2. To provide for variety in fixed dwelling types, their arrangement and design, based on a unified development plan conceived and carried out for an entire tract of land, all within the intent of this Code relating to population density and dwelling types within each residential district.

17.03 POWERS OF THE BOARD

In case there is question as to the intended meaning of any provision of the Zoning Text, the Board may interpret its meaning as it applies to a particular property.

Where the street or lot layout actually on the ground, or a recorded, differs from the street and lot lines as shown on the Zoning Map, the Board, after notice of public hearing to the owners of the property, shall interpret the map in such a way as to carry out the intent and purpose of this Code for the particular section or district in question. In case of any question as to the location of any boundary line between zoning districts, an application or interpretation of the Zoning Map may be made to the Board and a determination shall be made by said Board by following the procedure established in Section 17.02.

17.032 Original Jurisdiction Applications for Exceptions and Conditional Uses

The Board shall have original jurisdiction and may hear and decide, in accordance with the provisions of this Code, applications, filed as hereinbefore provided, for special exceptions, conditional uses, or for decisions upon other special questions on which the Board is authorized by this Code to pass. In considering an application for special exception or conditional use, the Board shall give due regard to the nature and condition of all adjacent uses and structures, and the consistency therewith of the proposed use and development. Before authorizing a use as a special exception or conditional use, the Board shall determine whether the proposed exception or use would be hazardous, harmful, noxious, offensive or a nuisance to the surrounding neighborhood. Upon authorizing a conditional use of exception the Board may impose such requirements and conditions with respect to location, construction, maintenance and operation, in addition to those expressly stipulated in this Code for the particular conditional use or exception, as the Board shall deem necessary for the protection of adjacent properties and the public interest.

In order to grant a variance, the Board must find:

1. That there are special circumstances or conditions, fully described in the Board's decision, applying to the land or building for which the variance is sought, which circumstances or conditions are peculiar to such land or building and do not apply generally to land or buildings in the neighborhood, and that said circumstances or conditions are such that the strict application of the provisions of this Code would result in practical difficulty and unnecessary hardship and deprive the applicant of the reasonable use of the land or building.
2. That the granting of the variance will be in harmony with the general purpose and intent of this Code and will not be injurious to the neighborhood or otherwise detrimental to the public welfare. In addition to considering the character and use of adjoining buildings and those in the vicinity, the Board, in determining its findings, shall take into account the number of persons residing or working in such buildings or upon such land and traffic conditions in the vicinity.
3. That the condition or situation of the specific piece of property or the intended use of said property, for which the variance is sought (one or the other or in combination) is not of so general or recurrent a nature as to make reasonably practicable the formulation as a part of this Code of a general regulation for such condition or situation.
4. That the variance as granted by the Board is the minimum variance that will accomplish the reasonable use of the subject land or building.

17.034 General Powers

In exercising its powers, the Board, in conformity with the provision of statute and this Code, may reverse or affirm, wholly or part or may modify the order, requirement, decision or determination appealed from, and may make such order, requirements, decision or determination as in its judgment ought to be made, and to that end shall have all powers of the office from which the appeal is taken. The Board shall have and shall be limited strictly to the powers and duties prescribed by

- A. Within said period, the provisions of said variance or permit have been acted upon and placed in effect, or
